

The EHS Officer

Provides updates on assigned tasks and acts as organisation EHS Expert ensuring all EHS Compliance requirements are fulfilled, policy and process documentation is in place, team training is delivered and up-to-date and general EHS administration duties are completed in a timely manner . The EHS Officer will primarily be based out of our Ashbourne HQ, but will be required to visit client sites and our dispersed team on a daily basis.

- Manages the delivery of EHS Compliant service in relation to construction , projects and facilities services with responsibility for team training & development
- Performs routine internal audits and inspections on our client services, work with the team in closing out audit finding to build a culture of safety and compliance
- Compile a register of risks and opportunity and proactively manage the actions required to complete and improve prioritised actions.
- Monitors and manages compliance across the business portfolio and updates the head of dept on pending breaches.
- Assists in managing legislation and regulatory compliance and take responsibility for action items relating to EHS management compliance .
- Coordinates and drives resources to achieve and complete departmental EHS Goals and Objectives
- Coordinates the Quality, Environmental and Safety management standards in accordance with ISO 9001, 18001 & 45001